From the President

Dear dance industry colleagues and friends,

Welcome to the first 2022 issue of The Competitive Advantage — here's hoping it finds you well!

The ADCC has been working to serve its competition & convention members, creating opportunities for networking and education, along with access to resources, and a great sense of camaraderie.

We have continued to face the challenges of the past two years united in our work as an association, and appreciative of the resilient spirit of our dance competition community, including all of you.

All of our members have been delighted to be back providing in-person events this season, thrilled to welcome studio directors, student dancers and their parents in celebrating the art of dance, and working together in a true spirit of cooperation. We acknowledge all the hard work of every studio and every ADCC member competition and convention to make this season memorable and inspiring.

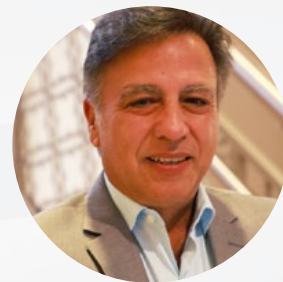

The ADCC's Annual Meeting will be held September 19-21 in Orlando, Florida, where members will gather to share knowledge and experience, to learn from one another and experts in the field, and to gain insights that will help make our industry stronger and more diverse.

In this issue, we begin celebrating our 2021-2022 ADCC Studio of Excellence winners. This award is given at each participating ADCC competition to the studio that best exemplifies the values of the ADCC, which include working together and striving for excellence.

As the 2021-2022 season draws to a close, I wish you a hopeful and fulfilling year in 2023!

Warmest regards,

David Sanders | ADCC President

THE HEADLINERS DIFFERENCE

- Entries limited per event. Competitions do not start before 8AM, end by 10PM. No early Friday starts. Sunday events end no later than 8PM.
- Photo and video are included for FREE! Studios receive an emailed link after the event to pass along to the dancers and their families.
- Judges are trained in all major forms of dance and must have experience teaching children of all ages and levels.
- 3 Levels of competition based on ability and skills, not class time
- Trophy or Charity program allows studios the opportunity to donate some or all of their adjudicated awards to one of six charities during the registration process.

WHAT ARE THE TEACHERS SAYING...

"I wanted to say a gracious thank you for an awesome weekend. Our dancers and families had a wonderful time. From the beginning to end it was a pleasurable experience for all. Your staff is world class. You will see us next year. I wish you and all of Headliners a wonderful finish of your season." - Jessica D'Agostino, Miss Jessica's JAMZ Studio of Dance, Inc.

"I love how you conduct business. I so appreciate the call and the open honest conversation. Looking forward to sharing time with you this summer!" - Michelle Cretella Bailey, Back Stage Dance Center

"We truly enjoyed your event, and the kids had a blast. It was so well organized; the judges' feedback was wonderful, and your staff was so friendly. Thank you again & have a great rest of your season!" - Kelly Cohen, The Dance Project

"The coaches and I were very pleased with the judges' critiques, and the variety of compliments coupled with areas to improve. We have already begun to apply their corrections and polish up our routines. I appreciate your time and attention. It is clear to me that you love what you do. See you in July." - Michelle Strauss, Strauss Performing Arts

"Thank YOU! We had a delightful weekend. Thank you for hosting such a fantastic event!" - Deborah Stanton Bianca, Dance Theater of New England
